THE STAMP MART

Antarctica Stamp Information

Information on stamps of Antarctica is difficult to find. Many of the stamps are issued in small quantities and are not widely distributed. Collectors must rely on specialized publications and dealers for information. The Falkland Islands Dependencies issued stamps from 1944 to 1963. These stamps are highly sought after by collectors. The British Antarctic Territory took over the issuing of stamps in 1963. Many of the stamps depict scientific research, wildlife, and the unique landscape of the region. Collectors should be aware of forgeries and reprints.

Stamp Exchange Club

The Stamp Exchange Club is a group of collectors who meet regularly to trade stamps. Members bring duplicates and wants lists. The club has been in existence for over 50 years. Meetings are held on the first Tuesday of each month at the Community Center. Visitors are welcome to attend. Membership dues are $10 per year. The club also publishes a monthly newsletter with articles and trade offers.

Revenue Stamp Values

Revenue stamps are used to pay taxes and fees. Their values can be difficult to determine. Factors affecting value include rarity, condition, and demand. Common revenue stamps are worth little. Rare revenue stamps can be very valuable. Collectors should consult a catalog or dealer before buying or selling revenue stamps. Proper storage is important to prevent damage.

U.S. Commemorative Issues

The United States Postal Service issues commemorative stamps to honor people, events, and places. These stamps are popular with collectors. The Postal Service announces new issues in advance. Collectors can subscribe to receive new issues automatically. Commemorative stamps are usually issued in limited quantities. Some commemorative stamps become valuable after they are no longer available.

Stamp Auction Sale

The Annual Stamp Auction Sale will be held on Saturday, March 15th, at the Grand Hotel. Over 500 lots will be offered for sale. Catalogs are available for $5.00. Bidding will begin at 10:00 AM. Preview the stamps on Friday, March 14th, from 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM. Absentee bids will be accepted. Contact the auction house for more information.
